

Lecture 3: Life at L'Abri

Introduction and Review: Having introduced the origin and mission of L'Abri, Professor Barrs speaks today on what life at L'Abri was like during his time there in the late 1960s.

Life at L'Abri

I. "My Arrival"

II. Housing at Huemoz

A. Typical number of people

B. Chalets and "Pensions"

C. Fees and finances

III. The People Who Came- "A Great Mixture"

A. "Counterculture"

B. Professionals

C. Families

D. Christians of all types

IV. Daily Schedule

Monday – Day of prayer

Tuesday/ Thursday – evening lecture

Friday – "day off"

Saturday – large lunch, discussions

Sunday – church, lunch and discussions, "high tea"

V. Dr. Schaeffer's "exhausting regimen"

A. Commitment to students as well as writings

B. A true servant