

Lecture 21 – Edmund Clowney’s The Church

But you are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people belonging to God, that you may declare the praises of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light. Once you were not a people, but now you are the people of God; once you had not received mercy, but now you have received mercy.

1 Peter 2:9-10

Lecture Objectives

- To highlight and explain some of Clowney’s key points in his presentation of the doctrine of the church
- To identify key strengths and areas for improvement in our understand of the church and our relationship with the church

Having studied what the church is, its nature, marks, and attributes, we are in the middle of studying that the church is to do. This lecture will afford an opportunity for further reflection on Clowney’s book The Church. Dr. Peterson will offer expanded comment on the questions as we grade the quiz. Space is provided so as to facilitate notes you may wish to take on each question.
